

A BOOK CLUB PARTICIPANT'S GUIDE FOR THE GOSPEL OF JOHN

Bartley Sawatsky & Nathan Bryant
©2017 Renew Church

Welcome!

Thanks for being part of our book club. The Gospel of John may be the shortest book you've ever read for a book club, but it will likely foster as much discussion as any lengthy book that you've read.

All of us are required to read the entire book of John prior to the first meeting of the club. This ensures that we can have an intelligent discussion with full participation. Each week the facilitator will introduce a topic of discussion and we will take the time to hear what everyone thinks about what they have read. We will be kind and considerate in our comments and critiques of one another's opinions, but we are free to offer up our own points of view and contest others' points of view.

The goal of the group is threefold:

1. To make some new friends and have some fun.
2. To gain some insight into a classic piece of literature.
3. To arrive at a deeper understanding of John's purpose in writing.

Introduction to The Gospel of John

The book was written somewhere between AD 85-95 by one of Jesus' disciples. John was the youngest of the disciples and one of the three who were part of Jesus' inner circle (along with Peter and James – John's older brother). In his gospel, John refers to himself as “the disciple whom Jesus loved,” signifying that Jesus took a special interest in mentoring him as a teenager.

While the word gospel simply means “good news,” it is also a literary form in the Bible. A gospel is a record of the life and teaching of Jesus. John's gospel is one of four gospels in the New Testament and is most unique from the other three. His purpose seems to be to present Jesus as the legitimate Son of God, as can be seen from the concluding words of his book:

Jesus performed many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not recorded in this book. But these are written that you may believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God, and that by believing you may have life in his name.

– JOHN 20:30-31

For the sake of time and interest, we won't be discussing the historicity of the book or entertaining any other “external” discussions about the book. Those discussions are certainly interesting and worthwhile, and participants can do that on their own if they so choose. This club will focus on the internal discussions related to the words and stories themselves. As you will see, there will be more than plenty of discussion topics to engage in.

Though we live in a land of Christian heritage, fewer and fewer North Americans really have a solid grasp of who Jesus Christ was and what he taught. The truth is, if you are not a regular church attendee you probably know very little about him. Our public schools spend very little time on religion, and church and state are so separate that religious discussion is rarely included in public life. You may also be coming to this country from a place where Christianity is not as well known. Whatever your situation, please do not feel guilty about any lack of knowledge you may be feeling. This book club will give all of us a chance to grow in our knowledge.

John's gospel is all about Jesus Christ. Regardless of your religious background, don't be intimidated by that. You will see very quickly that John was not writing about a religion. He was not trying to get anyone to join his church or to "clean up their act." Regardless of our religious background, we can all agree that Jesus was a hugely significant historical figure and that it is worthwhile for us to understand who he was and what he was all about.

The Gospel of John is one of 66 books contained in the Bible. No one has to believe the Bible in order to participate in this book club. There's a good chance many of us haven't even spent much time in it before. Let's just all agree to take John's book at face value like we would any other piece of literature.

Let's strive together for intellectual honesty. For the time being, let's set aside the things we have heard from others about Jesus. This is our chance to read for ourselves what the Apostle John says about him. This is our chance to evaluate firsthand the claims that Jesus made. We may believe him; we may not. But at the end of this book club we will have enough information to begin formulating our own conclusions about him.

Once again, thanks for being part of our club and for completing your reading. We hope it will be an enlightening and enriching experience for you!

SECTION A:

WHO JESUS IS

Introduction to Week 1

Had Jesus merely been a good man or teacher, it is questionable whether or not he ever would have gained universal prominence. Though his teachings were certainly controversial, it was not simply his words that made people interested in him. It was largely his actions.

History records many incredible acts performed by Jesus. Everywhere he went he attracted large crowds who were eager to see what he would do next. He healed the sick, had power over nature, and even raised people from the dead. Numerous sources attest to the historicity of these events – even religious books like the Koran. His contemporaries attested to his ability to perform the miraculous. Not even his enemies could deny what he did, but chose rather to attribute his power to Satan or demons. They even tried to kill him in order to put an end to his miracles, lest everyone believe in him (John 11:48).

If Jesus were nothing more than a magician, surely he would have been found out. His miracles were almost always done in full view of the public eye. If his disciples were spreading false stories, their writings would surely have been written off as being as ludicrous as the National Inquirer. Yet the Bible is the most read book of all time, and not just for its entertainment value.

As we discuss what Jesus did, think about the implications of Jesus' miracles. Try to relate to those who saw him do such incredible things before their very eyes. Put yourself in their sandals and see how you would have reacted.

Jesus Healed the Sick

Let's look at JOHN 4:43-54.

1. After hearing the royal official's request, Jesus makes a strong comment. How do you understand his words?
2. What is noteworthy to you about how Jesus healed the royal official's son?
3. How did people respond to this miracle?

Let's look at JOHN 9:1-34.

1. What is the big philosophical question the disciples raise in this passage?
2. Discuss Jesus' answer.
3. What do you think about the action that Jesus requires of the blind man?
4. What questions arise immediately after this miracle?

5. How do you feel about the Pharisees' reaction to Jesus' miracle and the fact that he healed someone on the Sabbath?
6. The healing of a blind man should have been a reason for great celebration. Why do you think the Pharisees had such a hard time accepting it?
7. What are your impressions of the final conclusion of the man that Jesus healed? (vv. 30-33)
8. What are your impressions of the Pharisees' reaction? (v. 34)

NOTE

The Pharisees were a prominent sect during Jesus' day. As with all of the sects the New Testament mentions during that time, they were both political and religious; there was no separation. While the Pharisees believed the Old Testament was inspired by God, they were extreme legalists and added to the Old Testament commands, placing a heavy burden on people. As we will see, Jesus criticized them sharply during his ministry.

Jesus Had Power Over Nature

Let's discuss some of the miracles Jesus performed that showed his power over nature. What things stand out to you from each of these miracles?

JOHN 2:1-11 Jesus Turns Water Into Wine

JOHN 6:1-15 Jesus Feeds the 5,000

JOHN 6:16-21 Jesus Walks on Water

JOHN 21:1-14 Jesus and the Miraculous Catch of Fish

Jesus Was All-Knowing

Jesus repeatedly demonstrated that he knew information that he had no humanly possible way of knowing. Discuss your observations from the following passages.

JOHN 2:23-25

JOHN 4:16-19, 28-29

JOHN 10:17-18; 12:23-24, 32-33

JOHN 13:18-30

JOHN 13:38

Jesus Had Power Over Death

On several occasions, Jesus saved or restored life. Discuss the story of Lazarus, found in John 11:1-44.

1. When Jesus heard Lazarus was sick, what did he say?
2. What observations do you make about Jesus' departure to see Lazarus?
3. What do you note about Jesus' demeanor compared to that of the family and the disciples?
4. Verses 24-25 contain a loaded proclamation on Jesus' part. How do you understand his words?
5. People seemed upset that Jesus allowed Lazarus to die in the first place. (See v. 37.) Why do you think Jesus allowed it to happen if he could have prevented it?

Jesus Himself Rose From the Dead

The Gospels describe multiple times when Jesus showed mastery over the death of others. In John 20, John tells of Jesus' power over even his own death. Discuss the resurrection story in John 20:1-31 and anything noteworthy you want to share.

Introduction to Week 2

John was a disciple of Jesus. Five different times in his gospel he refers to himself as “the disciple whom Jesus loved,” so it’s safe to say that they were very close friends. Probably no other person in history was more qualified to share his thoughts on Jesus than was John. He begins his book with a prologue on his conclusions regarding Jesus Christ. Then he puts his biases aside and tells the story of Jesus’ life as he remembers it – the good times with the bad, the sympathetic people with the hostile. He gives the very words that men and women spoke in Jesus’ regard.

This week we will focus on those words. In fact, we’ll do a scan through the book and refresh our memory on what various people said about him. As we do, let’s try to understand the perspective of each speaker – their background, position in life, and vantage point. Evaluate each response as if you were there on the scene as well.

JOHN 1:1-18 > The Apostle John

Before sharing others' opinions about Jesus, John himself comes clean with his personal bias. He says some pretty remarkable things about Jesus (aka "the Word"). Take some time to discuss what he says.

JOHN 1:29, 35-36 > John the Baptist

JOHN 1:41 > Andrew

JOHN 1:49 > Nathaniel

JOHN 4:29 > Samaritan Woman

JOHN 4:42 > Samaritans

JOHN 6:14 > The Crowds

JOHN 6:69 > Peter

NOTE

The "Word" (Logos in Greek) was a term used by Greek philosophers going back as early as Heraclitus (535-475 BCE). The Sophists, Aristotle, the Stoics and Philo of Alexandria all used the term. Heraclitus referred to the "Logos" as the unifying principle of order and knowledge, and the Stoics (circa 300 BCE) developed the term to mean the divine animating principle pervading the universe. They went so far as to say it was the ideal around which a person should aim to live their life in order to be in harmony with the universe. So when John uses the term, it is loaded with meaning for his audience.

NOTE

In John chapter 7, John seems to be highlighting the various opinions being shared about Jesus. If you want to focus on a specific passage, this is a good one.

NOTE

Every Jew of Jesus' time was schooled in the Old Testament scriptures. They understood that the scriptures foretold of a Messiah who would come – someone from the line of David, sent from God to restore Israel's prominence and bring peace and justice.

NOTE

When John uses the term “the Jews”, often he is not just referring to the general Jewish population, but religious Jews (especially leaders) and those who followed them.

JOHN 7:12 > The Crowds

JOHN 7:20 > The Crowds

JOHN 7:40-41 > Some of the People

JOHN 7:46 > The Temple Guards

JOHN 8:48, 52 > The Jews

JOHN 9:17 > The Man Born Blind

JOHN 9:24 > The Jews

JOHN 9:30-33 > The Man Born Blind

JOHN 10:21 > Other Jews

JOHN 11:27 > Martha

JOHN 12:13 > The Crowd at the Passover Festival

JOHN 12:19 > The Pharisees

JOHN 16:30 > The Disciples

JOHN 18:29-30 > The Jews

JOHN 18:38 > Pilate

JOHN 19:6 > Pilate

JOHN 19:7 > The Jews

JOHN 19:19 > Pilate's Sign

JOHN 20:28 > Thomas

JOHN 20:30-31 > The Apostle John

Now that you have refreshed your memory on the things people said about Jesus, take some time to discuss some of the statements that stood out to you.

NOTE

The trial of Jesus is another time when the opinions being shared about him intensify. Be sure to take the time to discuss this section.

NOTE

Matthew's gospel records the words of one of the centurion guards who helped crucify Jesus. After seeing the sky go black and feeling the earth shake, he was terrified and confessed, "Surely he was the Son of God." (Matthew 27:54)

Introduction to Week 3

We have now examined what Jesus did and what conclusions others have drawn about him. Now it is time to see what he said about himself. If Jesus wasn't claiming to be anyone great or special, then there is really nothing left to do but examine his teachings as one would the teachings of any religious figure. If he was indeed claiming to be someone special, what are the ramifications?

Again this week we will do a survey of the book, but this time examining Jesus' claims about himself as they are recorded by John. Remember that the words John records are ones that he too had to deeply ponder at one time. Look at the context of each verse. Examine together the full weight of his statements and the metaphors he employs. By the end of this week's discussion we should have a solid base of information by which to begin forming our own conclusions about Jesus.

JOHN 4:25-26 > To the Samaritan Woman

JOHN 5:16-18 > To the Jews

JOHN 5:21-23 > To the Jews

JOHN 5:26-27 > To the Jews

JOHN 5:36 > To the Jews

JOHN 5:39 > To the Jews

JOHN 6:27 > To the Crowds that Followed Him After Being Fed

JOHN 6:35 > To the Crowds that Followed Him After Being Fed

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

What is the connection between Jesus claiming to be the “bread of life” immediately after performing the miracle of feeding the crowd of over 5,000?

JOHN 6:41-42 > To the Jews

NOTE

In the Jewish mind, the appellation of “son” often designated more than just a physical, filial relationship. To be a “son” or “daughter” of someone meant to be “one after the kind of” someone. That’s why in 1 Peter 3, the Apostle Paul said women are “daughters” of Abraham’s wife, Sarah, when they follow her example. It is also why Jesus said that if we love our enemies, like God does, that we will be children (literally: “sons”) of our Father in heaven (Matthew 5:44-45). So when Jesus claimed to be God’s “son”, both John and the Jews understood the claim he was making.

NOTE

If you read further in John 6, you will see that Jesus was clearly comparing himself with the manna that God gave to the Israelites in the wilderness. Discuss the comparison that Jesus is making between himself and the manna.

NOTE

By the extreme reaction of Jewish religious leaders, who want to kill Jesus upon hearing his words “Before Abraham was born, I am!”, it is apparent that Jesus was making a powerful statement that the Jews considered blasphemous. Every Jew present would have understood that Jesus was not only claiming to have existed before their patriarch, Abraham, but also that he was taking on himself the personal name of God (Yahweh) that God used for himself when talking with Moses (Exodus 3:14).

NOTE

“Son of Man” is a term Jesus often used for himself. It was drawn directly from the book of Daniel.

“In my vision at night I looked, and there before me was one like a son of man, coming with the clouds of heaven. He approached the Ancient of Days and was led into his presence. He was given authority, glory and sovereign power; all nations and peoples of every language worshiped him. His dominion is an everlasting dominion that will not pass away, and his kingdom is one that will never be destroyed.” (Daniel 7:13-14)

In Aramaic, the phrase bar enash (son of man) simply means human being, denoting that the Messiah to come would be a human being. Jesus used the term to show that he was indeed a human being, but also that he was the promised Messiah, who was given authority, glory and sovereign power.

JOHN 8:12 > To the People, Jews and Pharisees Included

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

What do you suppose Jesus meant by this statement?

JOHN 8:24 > To the People, Jews and Pharisees Included

JOHN 8:46 > To Jews Who Showed Initial Interest

JOHN 8:58-59 > To Jews Who Showed Initial Interest

JOHN 9:35-37 > TO THE MAN BORN BLIND

JOHN 10:7-9 > To the Pharisees

NOTE: Commentators Kenneth Bailey and George Beasley-Murray explain how in the summer, sheep were sometimes kept out in the pasture overnight. The pen used was simply an enclosure made of piled rocks; there was neither roof nor door, but thorns along the top of the rock walls to protect the sheep from wild animals. The shepherd himself slept in the entrance, his own body serving as the door, or gate. With this context, discuss the significance of Jesus using the metaphor of himself.

JOHN 10:11-14 > To the Pharisees

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

What do you suppose Jesus meant by this metaphor?

JOHN 10:24-25 > To the Jews

JOHN 10:30-33 > To the Jews

JOHN 11:25 > To Martha

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

What does Jesus mean by “the resurrection and the life”? What kind of death do you think he is talking about here – physical, spiritual, or both?

JOHN 12:44 > To the Crowd

JOHN 12:45 > To the Crowd

JOHN 13:13 > To the Disciples

JOHN 14:6 > To the Disciples

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

These words seem very exclusive. Discuss the implications of these very strong statements Jesus is making.

NOTE

Some have argued that Jesus was not fully claiming divinity by using the words “I and the Father are one”, but the Jewish religious leaders obviously believed he was. When pressed on it, Jesus did not deny the claim, but continued to point to his amazing works as proof of his identity.

JOHN 14:7-9 > To the Disciples, Especially Thomas and Philip

JOHN 15:1, 5 > To the Disciples

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

What do you suppose Jesus meant by this metaphor?

JOHN 18:37 > To Pilate

The Trilemma

Although many claim that Jesus was merely a “good man”, one has to ask if that is really an option after studying his life. Renowned thinker and author C.S. Lewis once said that thorough contemplation of Christ’s life presents us with a trilemma: the decision of whether or not Christ was the Lord, a liar, or a lunatic. Lewis believed, logically, that these were the only real options.

According to Lewis, either Jesus was God as he said, or he was a deceiver (and not a good man) or a crazy man who didn’t know what he was saying. Finish this week’s discussion by discussing the trilemma with your group.

SECTION B:

WHAT JESUS TAUGHT

Introduction to Week 4

So far we have looked at what Jesus did, what others said about him, and what Jesus said about himself. Now that we have been properly introduced to Jesus, we have a framework from which to evaluate what he taught.

It is important to remind ourselves again that Jesus was no “feel good” guru. He was obviously not interested in tickling people’s ears in order to get them to like him. Jesus taught doctrines that he knew would divide people (Luke 12:51-53). Even Jesus’ disciples found some of his teachings hard to accept (John 6:60). Our next few meetings will expose Jesus’ teachings. Some of his sayings may be confusing to us at first, just as they were for his disciples, but with a little persistence we should see some clear themes emerging.

This week we will focus specifically on man’s great problem. Jesus talked a lot about it. As in previous weeks, we will examine what John has recorded on this subject by looking at several isolated statements that he, John the Baptist, and Jesus made. At the end of the discussion we will see if we can summarize into a single sentence what man’s problem is according to the Gospel of John. Work together and have fun!

The Apostle John's Teachings

Let's look at JOHN 1:1-11.

In these verses, John uses the metaphors of light and darkness. Discuss these concepts in detail, making sure to answer the following questions:

- A. Where is mankind situated by default – in the light or darkness?
- B. What has the darkness failed to do, according to do (v. 5)?
- C. Was John (the Baptist) the light?
- D. Who is the true light (v. 9)?
- E. To whom does he give light (v. 9)?
- F. Though Jesus was in the world and even made the world, what has the world failed to do (v. 10)?
- G. What did Jesus' own people (the Jews) fail to do (v. 11)?
- H. What right did Jesus give to those who received and believed him (v. 12)?
- I. According to verse 12, is everyone a child of God?

John the Baptist's Teachings

- 1. Let's look at JOHN 1:29-34.
 - A. What did John call Jesus (v. 29)?
 - B. According to John, what did Jesus come to do?
 - C. So according to John the Baptist, what is the world's problem?
- 2. In JOHN 3:36, John the Baptist makes another bold statement about Jesus. What does he say about those who either believe in him or reject him?

Jesus' Teachings

- 1. Let's look at JOHN 3:1-21 where Jesus talks with Nicodemus, a religious leader who comes to see Jesus at night. What insight can be gained about mankind's problem from this passage?

NOTE

John the Baptist was related to Jesus through their mothers. In Luke 1:36, Elizabeth is described as Mary's "kinswoman," meaning that they were related in some way through marriage or blood. Elizabeth, being elderly, may have been an aunt, great-aunt, or one of the many types of "cousin." The precise relationship cannot be determined. According to the gospel accounts, John the Baptist anticipated a messianic figure greater than himself and he is commonly referred to as the precursor or forerunner of Jesus, since John announces Jesus' coming.

NOTE

John mentions a lot about perishing, death, and condemnation in relation to mankind's condition. It is important to recognize that Jesus is not merely referring to physical death. In Matthew 10:28, Jesus says to his disciples, "Do not be afraid of those who kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Rather, be afraid of the One who can destroy both soul and body in hell." In other words, both spiritual and physical death are in view. The concept of hell is not completely clear in the New Testament, but Jesus described it as a place that destroys both body and soul (physical and spiritual). It is the state of existence that remains when one rejects God, who is the source of everything good. It is the total deprivation of all love, goodness and hope.

John also wrote the book of Revelation. In it he records a vision of the type of death Jesus talked about: "Then death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. The lake of fire is the second death." (Revelation 20:14) The first death (physical) is separation of the spirit and soul from the body. The second death (spiritual) is the separation of the spirit and soul from God. We see then that the consequences of rejecting Jesus are very serious.

2. Look at JOHN 8:12-24 where the Pharisees dispute Jesus' testimony about himself – that he is "the light of the world." What insights about mankind's condition can be gleaned from these verses, especially verses 12, 21 and 24?
3. In JOHN 8:31-36, Jesus continues to give more information to those whose hearts were open to hearing him. Take note of what Jesus says here about sin and slavery. What insights do you glean here about mankind's condition?

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

Why is mankind under God's wrath? Why is he angry?

4. In JOHN 8:42-47, Jesus makes some strong statements about his Jewish listeners. What does he say?

5. We've already read the story of the man born blind in John chapter 9. In that passage, Jesus basically says that his Jewish audience was "spiritually deaf" – unable to grasp the truth he was sharing with them about himself. In JOHN 9:35-41 he uses the parallel concept of "spiritual blindness" to describe the Pharisees. Discuss the concept of spiritual blindness and the difference between the person who acknowledges their blindness and the person who doesn't.
6. Look at JOHN 12:42-50. What can we glean about the human condition in these verses?

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

Do you think most people are more driven by what God thinks or by what people around them think?

7. Look at JOHN 14:1-7 and discuss the following questions.
 - A. What place do you think verses 1-4 are talking about?
 - B. According to Jesus, are there many ways to heaven?
 - C. Can a person get to heaven on their own?
8. Look at JOHN 15:18-25 and discuss the following questions.
 - A. Why do people hate the followers of Jesus?
 - B. Why do people have no excuse for their sin (v. 22)?
 - C. What other reason contributes to our guilt (v. 24)?

9. Jesus' last recorded prayer before his crucifixion is recorded in John 17. Look at JOHN 17:24-26 and discuss among yourselves what Jesus' ultimate desire for humankind was.
10. As promised, it's time to summarize mankind's problem as it is presented in the Gospel of John. Working together as a group, formulate one sentence that encapsulates the ideas that you have uncovered.
11. The Apostle Paul summarized man's great problem in the epistle he wrote to the Christians in Rome:

“For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God...”

– ROMANS 3:23

“For the wages of sin is death...”

– ROMANS 6:23

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

Do these statements agree pretty well with the summary that you created?

Introduction to Week 5

As we have seen from our last discussion, man is in serious trouble. He is a sinner, and his sin separates him from God. “For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.” (Romans 3:23) The penalty for his sin is death – both physical and spiritual. “For the wages of sin is death...” (Romans 6:23) Without a solution he will spend all of eternity separated from God and his goodness.

Thankfully, God has provided a solution to man’s predicament. In today’s discussion we will identify what that solution is. Once again, we will read some statements by John and then by Jesus. Let’s remember that we are dealing with spiritual truths. Sometimes the only way to teach spiritual truth is through images. Fortunately for us, Jesus was the master at communicating spiritual truth; his stories will make sense if we study them through. By now some of the passages are starting to sound familiar to us. This will be helpful, as we can draw on our understanding of the passage at hand. Let’s keep the theme, “God’s Solution to Man’s Problem,” in mind as we have our discussion.

NOTE

In the Old Testament times, a perfect lamb without any defect was killed and sacrificed (as an innocent substitute) to pay for the sins of the people. This was a symbol of Jesus Christ, the true Lamb of God, who was later to come into the world. Why then, did Jesus (the Lamb of God) die on the cross?

1. Look at JOHN 1:12. To whom does Jesus give the right to become children of God?
2. Read JOHN 1:29.
3. Look over JOHN 3:1-21.
 - A. What solution does Jesus give Nicodemus for seeing the kingdom of God (v. 3)?
 - B. To be “born of water” refers to physical birth. In order to enter the kingdom of God, Jesus says we need what other type of birth (v. 5)?
 - C. To what event do you suppose Jesus is referring in verse 14, and why?

NOTE: Jesus refers to a story from the Old Testament. At a certain point during Israel’s trek to the promised land, the Lord had Moses make a bronze snake and place it upon a pole. He did this so that anyone who suffered a deadly snake bite could look to the pole and be saved from death (see Numbers 21:8). Here Jesus says that he also will be “lifted up.”
 - D. What was God’s gift to the world (vv. 16-17)?
 - E. What was God’s motive for doing this?
 - F. According to verse 17, why did God send Jesus into the world?
 - G. Is it safe to say, then, that God’s gift for the world, is embodied in Jesus?
4. Read JOHN 4:13-15.
 - A. What happens to the person who drinks the “water” Jesus gives them?
 - B. How did Jesus describe what it’s like to have eternal life inside?

5. Read JOHN 5:24.
 - A. Based on what Jesus says here, when does eternal life begin?
 - B. Discuss how it could be possible to “cross over from death to life” when you are already alive physically.
6. Refresh your memory of JOHN 6:35-40.
 - A. What will happen to the person who partakes of the true bread of life?
 - B. According to verse 37, will Jesus drive away someone who comes to him?
 - C. According to verses 39-40, what will Jesus do in the last day for those who believe in him?
7. Read JOHN 8:12.

According to Jesus himself, what will his followers never do again?
8. Read JOHN 8:34-36.
 - A. What can the Son of Man set you free from?
 - B. What does it look like to be freed from sin?
9. Read JOHN 10:7-10.
 - A. What term does Jesus use for himself?
 - B. What will happen to the person who enters through him (see verse 9)?
 - C. For what two reasons did Jesus come?
 - D. From these last two passages then, what is the nature of the spiritual life that Jesus offers?
10. Look over JOHN 10:14-18.
 - A. What did Jesus say he would do for his sheep in verses 15, 17, and 18?
 - B. What do you think he was talking about?
 - C. Do you think Jesus died on the cross out of obligation or out of choice?

NOTE

Writers like the apostle Paul clarify the fact that Jesus died in our place in order to pay for our wrong deeds. 2 Corinthians 5:21 says “God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.”

11. Read JOHN 14:5-7.

- A. What 3 words does Jesus use to describe himself here (v. 6)?
- B. What is the only way to the Father (v. 6)?

DISCUSSION QUESTION:

How do you feel about Jesus' exclusive sounding statement here?
Does he have the authority to say this?

12. Read JOHN 19:30.

What do you suppose Jesus meant by his final words on the cross?
What was "finished?"

13. After everything you discussed in this session, how would you summarize "God's solution to mankind's problem?" Take some time to discuss this together and record your thoughts below.

However you summarized God's solution, numerous New Testament writers use the word "gift" to describe it.

For the wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

– ROMANS 6:23 (THE APOSTLE PAUL)

It would be nice to think that God's gift of eternal life automatically applies to everyone, but we may not want to make that assumption. Based on what we've already seen, John seems to suggest some kind of faith response is necessary...

For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.

– JOHN 3:16

If God loved “the world”, it's safe to say that his gift of life is offered to everyone. But will everyone receive it? How are we to respond to God's offer? John has made a lot of statements in that regard. Did you catch them? That will be the focus of our final discussion.

Introduction to Week 6

Mankind's problem is sin (Romans 3:23). From what we've read, it is pretty clear that John believed he knew the solution to this problem; his name is Jesus Christ. "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes on him shall not perish but have eternal life." (John 3:16) John says that because of Christ's death on the cross he can offer us eternal life, entrance into God's family, light upon our life's path, and inner satisfaction. There now remains just one question that begs to be asked. "How does someone respond to this offer?" All of our discussion to this point leads naturally to this very important question.

Indeed, if what Jesus has said about life is true – our entire existence hangs upon this question of how to respond to Jesus and to God. Take your time as you engage in this week's discussion. Be sure to notice key words that describe exactly what Jesus said was the proper response on behalf of mankind. Many people and organizations have their own ideas of how to respond to God, but we are not interested in that. Our goal is to see from a firsthand witness (John) what Jesus said. Once again, at the end of the lesson you will be asked to collaborate and summarize what Jesus has said on this subject, so stay alert!

1. Read JOHN 1:10-12.

- A. What is mankind condemned for not doing?
- B. What were Jesus' own people condemned for in verse 11?
- C. To whom has Jesus given the right to become children of God?

2. Read JOHN 3:16-18.

- A. What does Jesus say one must do in order to have eternal life?
- B. If one does this, what will happen to him?
- C. If he does not believe, what will happen to him (verses 17 and 18)?
- D. What do you think it means to "stand condemned already"?

3. Read JOHN 3:36.

- A. According to this verse, what happens to the person who believes in the Son (Jesus)?
- B. What happens to the person who rejects the Son?

4. Read JOHN 5:24.

- A. According to Jesus, what two things must a person do to receive eternal life?
- B. How does a person's standing change upon doing these 2 things?
- C. What do you think is meant here by "death" and "life"?

5. Read JOHN 6:28-29.

Based on these verses, what sole work does God require of us?

6. Read JOHN 6:35.

What 2 actions does Jesus encourage us to take?

7. Read JOHN 12:36.

Discuss together what John says one must do with the light in order to become a child of the light.

8. Review JOHN 20:24-30 (the story of Thomas).
- A. Why do we often refer to Thomas as “Doubting Thomas”?
 - B. Who does Jesus call blessed in verse 29, and to whom do you think he was referring?

9. Read JOHN 20:31.

Why did John write his book?

10. Working together from what you discussed in this session, write down at least 4 terms that you find that Jesus used to describe what our response must be toward him.

11. There are many people in North America who believe that a Christian is someone who simply believes Jesus existed. There are others who feel that all they must do is agree that Jesus was a good man. Jesus seemed to use the word “believe” in its stricter sense. Consider this helpful example:

A Marxist is not a person who believed Karl Marx existed; it is a person who embraces the philosophies of Marx. A Darwinist is one who embraces the teachings of Darwin. Likewise, a Christian is one who embraces the teachings of Jesus Christ.

We have now had a number of weeks to contemplate what John has recorded about Jesus and his message. We have discussed his life in some detail, seeing what he did, what others said about him, and what he said about himself. We have also examined Jesus' teachings. We learned, first of all, that mankind has a serious problem. That problem is sin. Sin has separated us from God, and threatens to separate us from his presence for all eternity. God's solution to man's problem was to send Jesus to earth.

By dying in our place, Jesus created a way for us to be reunited with God and to enjoy eternal life. Eternal life begins the moment that a person believes in Jesus. We have seen that "believing" is more than just giving intellectual assent to the fact that Jesus existed. Jesus has presented us with a whole different way of living, one that we must embrace or reject. Just as Jesus was committed to doing the will of the Father (John 6:38), we must choose whether we are going to continue to rule our own lives or let God be our true Father – accepting his identity, love, protection and provision, but also submitting to his authority and rules.

Becoming a Child of God

Imagine for a second that you are an orphan, not old enough to make it on your own, but old enough to decide if you want to become part of a family. The parents of the family meet with you, and you start to spend some time with them and their children. After a number of months, the father asks you if you would like to become part of their family. He is willing to adopt you, but the decision is yours to make.

Discuss together with the group some of the things you would need to process before making your decision...

- A. What does it mean to take on someone else's identity?
- B. What are the benefits of being adopted?
- C. Is it normal to expect to submit to the parents' authority and to abide by the family rules?
- D. What might make an orphan say yes to the offer?
- E. What might make an orphan say no to the offer?

As you can see, there is a lot to consider. The same is true of someone who is choosing to become a member of God's family. And this seems to be exactly what John is talking about in a spiritual sense...

Yet to all who did receive him, to those who believed in his name, he gave the right to become children of God – children born not of natural descent, nor of human decision or a husband's will, but born of God.

– JOHN 1:12-13

Two Final Discussion Questions

We appreciate everyone's input throughout this book club, and each person's willingness to share their personal thoughts and feelings. These last two questions are very personal, but hopefully by now you feel comfortable enough with the group to be honest about how you feel.

1. Do you consider yourself a child of God in the way the Apostle John describes? Why or why not?
2. If you wouldn't consider yourself a child of God (in the way John describes), what would you say keeps you from "receiving Jesus" and accepting God's offer to become your true Father?

Conclusion

Thanks again for being part of this book club. It has been a great experience! We hope that you have benefited a lot from hearing John's firsthand perspective about Jesus. Please be sure to talk with your book club facilitator if you have anything further you'd like to discuss or if you'd like to inquire about future book club opportunities.
